

Spread of tuberculosis and scabies by refugees

Misleading and false statistics about a spread of tuberculosis and scabies were distributed on social networks in Germany. This was followed German politicians of the AfD who also distributed the statistics and added racial comments. Public health departments contradicted and labelled the statements to be false.