

INVISIBLE CARS CRASH

In March 2016, some videos about invisible vehicles' crash are uploaded on YouTube. The number of views of these video was extremely high. Using a validation tool proposed from the National Amnesty USA to track videos, it turned out that the video was being processed. An online video explaining the entire video editing procedure was, also, found.

The edited videos were uploaded on YouTube to raise money due to increased views.