

NAKED MAN IN FRONT OF VIRGIN'S IMAGE DURING REMONSTRATIONS

A photo of a naked man in front of Virgin's image held by a protesting woman during remonstrations against Macedonia's Agreement in Thessaloniki, Greece was viral on the social media provoking public discussion about its originality.

Firstly, the photo has been searched on the internet (using appropriate tools) to find out the publications it had been appeared in. The first post of the photo coincided with the remonstrations' date and every next use was relative to the specific fact. The photo had never been edited or processed.

So, many times news seem to be fake even if they are true.
